

A new primary school for Cirencester

HELP SHAPE
OUR VISION!

Proposed to open from September 2021

Corinium Education Trust is proposing to open a new primary school in the Chesterton Farm housing development. Opening in 2021 in high-quality temporary accommodation, the new school will move to a purpose-built school on the new development by September 2023. It will grow organically to its full capacity. The new school will become the beating heart of the new community. As a member of The Corinium Education Trust's family of schools, the new school will:

- Reflect the Trust's high expectations
- Deliver the National Curriculum
- Adopt a learning powered approach
- Raise standards of literacy and numeracy
- Shape memorable learning experiences
- Challenge all children to achieve more
- Nurture a love of learning and creativity
- Create a dynamic learning environment
- Provide Family friendly wraparound care
- Become a community resource for residents
